A Good Crowd.
Hon. H. V. McChesney spoke to a large crowd at the Courthouse Monday.

Mr. McChesney is a very pleasant speaker, and delighted his hearers, as he always does.
He discussed in an interesting style the many issues confronting the people, and held the attention of his hearers for an hour and a half. He has spoken several times before, and so well that he has always pleased the people that they always ask for him when a campaign is on.

Olle Is Coming.
Doubtless a very large crowd will be in town next Wednesday to hear the Hon. Olle M. James.
He is popularly known as 'The Big Congressman from the First District,' and that name is well deserved to him, not only physically, but mentally, as well. He has taken a first rank in the National Congress, and is recognized as one of the country's best men. He is an orator second to none, and is attracting large crowds wherever he speaks. Great preparations are being made to receive him here, and a large crowd is expected.

Joe Reed Pardoned.
Hons John W. Lewis and W.
F. Grigsby succeeded while in Frankfort last week secured the pardon of Joe Reed. Both the Governor and Lieutenant Governor were absent from the State at the time Secretary of State, Bruner, was in the chair.

Reed was convicted 12 months ago, of killing Jack Kimberlin at a colored hop in Briartown.
Although it was generally believed that he killed Kimberlin, yet the circumstances were such that public sentiment was in his favor, added to the fact that it was believed to have been a case of self defense, was the 'excellent reputation borne by Joe.
The petition for his pardon was signed by a large number of the best citizens of the county; and Governor Bruner in granting his pardon, has done what is highly pleasing to the people here.

To Our Friends.
We wish to extend our thanks to our many friends who remembered us so kindly with wedding gifts upon the occasion of our marriage last week.

MR. AND MRS. SAM M. BOTTOM.

A Hare's Daily Sea Bath.
A hare which had made a daily practice of swimming in the sea at Clay, to the delight of visitors, has been captured by some local fishermen in a boat. They chased the animal seaward for 200 yards before they came up with it. The hare was then exhausted and was easily captured—

"Didn't Land as He Expected."
"I did not expect to come down this way," was the only remark made by Joseph Klaward, of Tarrytown, New York, after falling from a height of 150 feet, striking a guard wire, turning a complete somersault and landing on his feet.
